

Clarius Supports Earth Hour 2010

At 8.30pm on Saturday, March 27 nearly 100 iconic landmarks in 1,000 cities and towns around the world will switch off their lights for Earth Hour 2010, joining hundreds of millions of people showing their commitment to the environment.

As part of our commitment to corporate and social responsibility, the Clarius Group has supported and participated annually in Earth Hour since it started in Sydney in 2007 and is proud to be participating again this year.
